Good Enough for Government Work with Kyle Eastham

- Feeding kids is no small task! You can't settle for mediocre. This approach will give you tools to be more effective in your leadership roles.
- Do you need to fire someone?
- What characteristics are you basing your hiring decisions on?
- What do Navy SEALs do that you could be doing?
- What does Yoda have to do with your food service operation?
- What are you lying to employees about that you must change?

What Would You Do?

- Hear a panel discussion on real-life situations and solutions for your life

Talent Show and Pageant

- Do you have a "talent"? Once described as a "no-talent talent show" this evening is sure to be fun. Group acts and solos are welcomed. The sillier, the better. Show us what you got!
